

COMPANY OVERVIEW

We are a veteran-owned, minority-owned medical courier company headquartered in Columbus, Mississippi. Established in February 2025, the company was founded to address the critical need for reliable, secure, and time-sensitive medical transportation services.

Specializing in the delivery of blood, organs, medical equipment, and essential healthcare supplies, H&S Courier understands that delays in medical logistics can directly impact patient care. With a strong commitment to professionalism, compliance, and punctuality, the company ensures that every delivery is handled with precision and urgency.

Operating with dedicated sprinter vans and a growing network of trained drivers, H&S Courier provides nationwide service while maintaining the personalized attention of a small, mission-focused business. Built on military values of discipline, accountability, and excellence, H&S Courier LLC is committed to delivering critical resources safely, securely, and on time—every time.
